As your groom your disciples to lead their own house churches, inspire them onward toward His upward call for soul-shaking worship.

- Worship involves good advance planning.
- Wise worship leaders do not try to entertain audiences.
- For small house churches, define a definite beginning and ending times. This compensates for the inform-ality of private homes.
- Worship involves teaching from the Scripture. The key is to teach well, but also with: 1) with culturally-appropriate role playing & 2) with MENU-based theme choices. Role plays show and illustrate the theme and wake participants up from possible boredom. MENU-based theme choices steer instruction/interaction toward true needs and not simply the teachers linear-driven Bible School notes.
- Through the week, an ongoing attitude of worship is lived out daily through God-honoring work & play.
